William and Port Arthur and in eastern terminals. Some 20,000,000 bushels of wheat have been taken and it is reported that the selzure will extend to other parts of Canada.

It is understood that the action was taken at the request of the British government. In a statement made public by the government it is said the object of the extraordinary order is to put a stop to speculative prices so Italian government. Prices for the wheat is yet to be determined.

The government order also brought sels in the harbors. Among the ships affected were the two largest of the great lakes, the Morden and Snyder, Jr., which have a capacity of 450,000 bushels each. All inspection and weighing also have ceased. The order seizing all grains in boats in harbors was modified, so that eight vessels, partially loaded, will be permitted to proceed to lower lake ports.

So far the farmers are unaffected, but as there is uncertainty as to the length to which the Dominion government, at the instance of the mother government, may go, grain men make no attempt to conceal their anxiety. They have many important orders to fill before the end of the month and as only a few days remain before the expiration of these trade agreements, anxiety is great.
